Piet Koornhof

Violinist Piet Koornhof is well-known in South Africa and has also performed in the USA, Europe, Israel, Russia, Singapore and New Zealand. He is founding member of both the South African Chamber Music Society and the Potch Trio. Their CD-recordings have internationally met with wide critical acclaim.

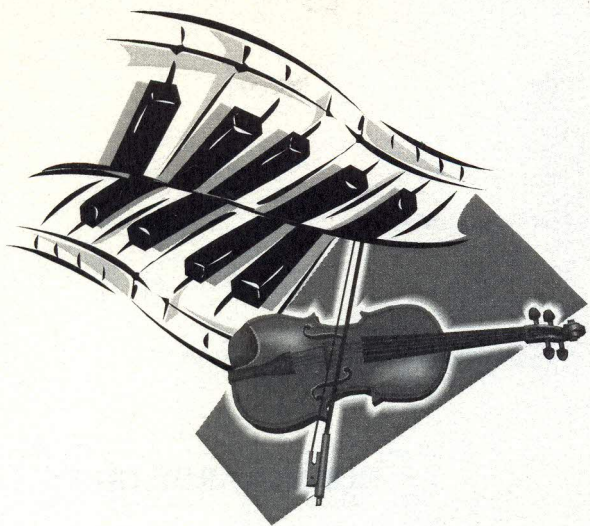

His teachers were Susan Sauermaun and Alan Solomon in South Africa, and Dorothy DeLay in the USA, where he also played in master classes by Sergiu Luca, Itzhak Perlman and Pinchas Zukerman.

Piet is currently associate professor at the Potchefstroom Campus of North West University.

Notable amongst his other passions are behaviour science and gliding. His wife Esmie is the exquisite mother of their two sons and a daughter.

Bernarda Vorster

Bernarda Vorster is senior lecturer in piano at the School of Music of the North-West University in Potchefstroom, where she obtained her DMus (Piano Performance) in 2006. She studied piano at (amongst other institutions) the Hochschule für Musik und darstellende Kunst in Wien (Austria). Bernarda participated as accompanist at the Vodacom international competitions for strings (2002 and 2010) and voice (2006) hosted by the Unisa Music Foundation and was a panelist for the initial round of the international piano competition in 2004. She has participated by invitation in chamber music series in Italy and Switzerland and delivered papers at the WPC conference in Novi Sad, Serbia (2009, 2010) and the International French Music conference in Hawaii (2007).
